EXTENSION TEAK DINING TABLE | the English Government have assumed a Pro-

tectorate over it. Owing to the few Members of the Church of England it has, prior to this, been found impossible to collect sufficient funds to pay a, resilent Chaplain.

Now, however, owing to the strenuous efforts of THE RIGHT REV. HOSE, Hishop of Singapore, Labuan, and Sarawak, the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign parts have granted £200 a year for five years towards this object as well as Missionary Work. The Bishop has selected an experienced Chaplain, but the salary being insufficient, an extra amount has been promised locally and also funds sufficient for the building of a Parsonage. Funds are, however, earnestly required towards the erection of a Church and School. The smallest contributions for the above will be thankfully received and acknowledged by. L. B. VON DONOP. Hon: Secretary and Treasurer, Church, Clergy and School Fund or by BIRLEY, DALRYMPLE & Co.,

TELEPHONE No. 12.

Hongkong, November 15th, 1888. In connection with our remarks on the six months. Manila lottery in vesterday's issue, our attention has been called to a judgment delivered by the Supreme Court seven years ago in a case appealed from the Magistracy. A Chinaman had been convicted of keeping a lottery agency. Evidence was given that he had sold tickets for the "Chinese Manile lottery," a lottery decided by the drawing of the Manila lottery; and a number of tickets, including some of the Manila lottery were seized. The Magistrate imposed a fine. " for the offence of keeping a lottery agency and ordered the confiscation of the tickets tery over the water in the basin, which at one seized. In the appeal the legality of the time seemed to be a very serious inundation. conviction for keeping a lottery agency was not disputed, but it was contended that the Ordinance did not authorise the forfeiture of the tickets. The sole object of the appeal was to recover possession of the Mauila lottery tickets, which represented a considerdrawings in which they had won prizes and |-N. C. Daily News. which had been cashed by the person convicted. The Supreme Court ordered the amendment of the Magistrate's decision by striking out the order for the confiscation of of the proceedings till to-morrow. This was the tickets. This it did, not because it in granted. any way recognised the legality of the Manile lottery, but because the Ordinance, which authorises the confiscation of gambling implements under the section dealing with public gambling bouses, does not (apparently by an oversight) authorise the confiscation of the tickets, etc., found in a lottery agency, The Court did not feel itself called upon to say whether the Manila lottery was illegal-or not; it was clear that in either case the tickets could not be confiscated, and there was an end of the matter so far as the particular object of the appeal was concerned. The Court did, however, hint at a doubt whether the present law would cover the Manila lottery, but there was, of course, no question as to the right of the legislature to enact what ever laws it might think proper in relation to it. Sir GEORGE PHILLIPPO, the late Chief Justice, said :- "It is not, therefore, necessary to decide whether a Manila lottery ticket is an implement of gambling. Even if it were necessary the Court has to means of forming an opinion. We have no judicial knowledge of what a Manila lottery ticket is, and no finding by the Magistrate is stated in the case. It might be argued that the words 'as all others,' following the names of three Chinese lotteries of a highly objectioncourse of interpretation, be ejusmodi generis. and mean Chinese too. It would be desirable, if the legislature intends to include the Manila lottery in these words, to make express provision." The present Chief | noon :---Justice, sitting then as Pulsne Judge, expressed no opinion on this point in his judgment. Sir GEORGE PHILLIPPO, it will be observed, merely said it-" might be argued" that the Manila lottery was excluded from the operation of the Ordinance, and expressed an opinion that it would be well to include specifically if the legislature intended it to be included; but we renture to think that if the argument had been advanced before the learned Judge and he had been called upon to pronounce upon it judicially he would bave overruled it. If the interpretation that the mention of three specific Chinese lotteries before the words " as all others " exempts all but Chinese lotteries from the operation of the law, it would be Jawful to organise European lotteries in the colony on a wholesale scale. But if any European attempted of deserting from the John McLeod, which, as to organise a lottery, corresponding to Mr. Apring's " Chinese Manila lottery," we opine that the Captain-Superintendent of Police wanderings and knows probably more about what hold of defendant. I afterwards gave him in would lose uo time in instituting a prosecution, and that there would be no difficulty in

> THE decision given by Mr. H. E. POLLOCK on Tuesday morning in a Chinese Club gambling case shows how much amendment is needed to our local Gambling Ordinance. The gambling houses in Chinese KowloonCity obtain a large sum of money from Hongkong anaually by gambling, and it is not improbable that in the pawn shops there numerous articles missing from Hongkong may found. To rectify this by any legislation Hongkong is of course powerless.

James Kelly's head, unlike either his morals or his appearance, is now better, and, barring a weary and dejected look that has settled on his furrowed brow, and a few ugly scratches on his Hibernian physiognomy, he is still the same James concerning whose deeds " the weary sailor spent with toil" is never tired of orating in any local tap room. What now are the materials with which it is proposed to force this body of water, much against its will, into its channel, which is morev a succession of hillocks of sand! They are five: sticks, stones, stalks, sand, and bricks. We mention the first mainly on the ground of antecedent 'probability, for we saw no piles, nor any poles arger than one's wrist, nor did we hear that any are used. The simple plan seems to be to place bundles of stalks on the bed of sand dug down as low as practicable, weight them with a few stones, pile on sand, and then proceed as before. The whole quantity of stones to be seen is, however, very trifling, and the main dependence is evidentbe added a new and apparently untried device, to wit, bricks. A few miles to the East of the break sixty or seventy kilns have been put up, and tens of thousands of bricks have been moulded (not A telegram from Phu-lang, thuong, dated 5th of brick-clay but of sand), each brick with a hole through it, an inch in diameter.
